The Journals of Jack Lovelock

Edited by David Colquhoun

(Published August 2008)

In the 1930s Jack Lovelock was one of the world's best-known athletes. In 1933 he broke the world record for the mile. At the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games he won a gold medal and broke the world record for the 1500 metres. Throughout his running career he kept a remarkable series of journals, which are now published for the first time.
